

13 Reasons

I hate that I've known you so long,
I hate your stupid jokes.
I hate the time when we never got along,
and the constant pinches and pokes.
I hate my favorite songs,
and the way you sang them out loud.

I hate when you scare me,
on accident and on purpose.
I hate it when you prove me wrong,
I hate that you never make me nervous.

I hate the fact that we stopped talking.
I hate the way you look at me,
after I say something childish.
I hate it when you bring up the same story.

I hate the way I hated you,
and how I felt when I got to know you.
I hate the way you thought you knew,
everything I was thinking.
I hate how we act now,
and even more the way we don't.

So this is to you,
A boy who just doesn't get it;
From me,
A girl who just wishes she didn't.
